Primary information regarding an exhibit:

- Maximum 20 to 30 paintings and 10 ~ 3D pieces depending on size
- Artists should familiarize themselves with the Art Gallery layout prior to their exhibition date.
- Artwork must be suitably prepared for display. Wall mounted work must be appropriately framed or stretched with finished sides and properly wired for hanging, using D hooks and wire. The D hooks should be 4" from top of frame or 1/3 of the height of the frame. The stretched wire should be 2" from top of frame. The Gallery reserves the right to refuse any piece. Work not properly prepared may not be exhibited. (Consult with Gallery Coordinator regarding special considerations).
- Art work drop off is the Saturday prior to the start of exhibition (3pm). Exhibitions are hung on the Sunday prior to the start of exhibition. All artwork must be collected after the exhibition closing date (Last Saturday of exhibition closing at 3 pm)
- Four weeks prior to exhibition, artists must supply labels, (20) invitations and 35 posters for distribution. Artists are responsible for additional invitations for their own distribution. MAC will distribute invitations and posters locally and will promote the exhibition through media releases, as well on our website, Twitter, and Facebook pages.
- Biographies, business cards, pamphlets, brochures, etc. plus stackers (matted paintings in transparent wrapping) or art cards may be on display and for sale in the Gallery as well. (subject to usual MAC percentage fees.)
- The Mission Arts Centre insurance policy does not provide coverage for exhibiting artists. The Arts Centre cannot be responsible for theft or damage; however, every necessary precaution will be exercised.
- All sales are handled through the Mission Arts Centre.
- All artists are paid monthly by District of Mission Arts Council by cheque. A 30% commission will be deducted from the artist's cheque. All works must remain to the end of the exhibit.
